About this Prospectus Supplement

This document consists of two parts, the first part is this prospectus supplement (the “Prospectus Supplement”), which describes the specific terms of this offering. The second part, the accompanying short form base shelf prospectus dated December 5, 2008 (the “Accompanying Prospectus”), gives more general information, some of which may not apply to this offering. If information in this Prospectus Supplement is inconsistent with the Accompanying Prospectus, investors should rely on the information in this Prospectus Supplement. This Prospectus Supplement, the Accompanying Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into each of them include important information about the Bank, the First Preferred Shares of the Bank being offered and other information investors should know before investing in the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and First Preferred Shares Series 25.

Caution Regarding Forward-looking Statements

From time to time, the Bank makes written forward-looking statements. Statements of this type are included in this Prospectus Supplement and the Accompanying Prospectus, in the “Major Economic Trends and Challenges” section and under “Medium-term objectives” in the “Overview” section of the Bank’s Annual Report for the year ended October 31, 2008 incorporated by reference in this Prospectus Supplement, in other filings with Canadian securities regulators or the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and in other communications, for the purpose of describing the economic environment in which the Bank will operate during fiscal 2009 and the objectives it has set for itself for that period. All such statements are made pursuant to the “safe harbour” provisions of the Canadian securities regulations and the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, among others, statements with respect to the economy (particularly the Canadian and American economy), market changes, observations regarding the Bank’s objectives and its strategies for achieving them, projected Bank returns and certain risks faced by the Bank. These forward-looking statements are typically identified by future or conditional verbs or words such as “may,” “could,” “should,” “would,” “will,” “project,” “suspect,” “outlook,” “believe,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “plan” and words and expressions of similar import.

By their very nature, such forward-looking statements require the Bank to make assumptions and involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific. The Bank recommends that investors and other readers not place undue reliance on these statements, as a number of important factors, many of which are beyond the Bank's control, could cause actual future results, conditions, actions or events to differ materially from the targets, projections, expectations, estimates or intentions expressed in the forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, the management of credit, market and liquidity risks; the strength of the Canadian and United States economies and the economies of other countries in which the Bank conducts business; the impact of the movement of the Canadian dollar relative to other currencies, particularly the U.S. dollar; the effects of changes in monetary policy, including changes in interest rate policies of the Bank of Canada and the United States Federal Reserve; the effects of competition in the markets in which the Bank operates; the impact of changes in the laws and regulations governing financial services (including banking, insurance and securities) and tax laws; judicial decisions and legal proceedings; developments with respect to the restructuring proposal relating to asset-backed commercial paper ("ABCP") and the impact of a failure of the restructuring on the Bank's balance sheet and the likelihood that the Bank be subject to certain litigation and other related risks; liquidity in the ABCP market and the further deterioration of the credit spreads which may lead to impairment charges on the Bank's ABCP holding; the Bank's ability to obtain accurate and complete information from its clients or counterparties; the Bank's ability to successfully align its organization, resources and processes; its ability to complete strategic acquisitions and integrate them successfully; changes in the accounting policies and methods the Bank uses to report its financial condition, including uncertainties associated with critical accounting assumptions and estimates; the Bank's ability to recruit and retain key officers; operational risks, including risks related to the Bank's reliance on third parties to provide components of the Bank's business infrastructure as well as other factors that may affect future results, including changes in trade policies; timely development of new products and services; changes in estimates related to reserves; technological changes; unexpected changes in consumer spending and saving habits; natural disasters; the possible impact on the business from public health emergencies, conflicts, other international events, and other developments, including those related to the war on terrorism; and the Bank's success in anticipating and managing the foregoing risks. A substantial amount of the Bank's business involves making loans or otherwise committing resources to specific companies, industries or countries. Unforeseen events affecting such borrowers, industries or countries could have a material adverse effect on the Bank's financial results, businesses, financial condition or liquidity. Reference is made to "Risk Factors".

The foregoing list of risk factors is not exhaustive. Additional information about these factors can be found under "Risk Management" and "Factors That Could Affect Future Results" in the Bank's 2008 Annual Report. Investors and others who base themselves on the Bank's forward-looking statements should carefully consider the above factors as well as the uncertainties they represent and the risk they entail. The Bank also cautions investors and other readers not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Except as required by law, the Bank does not undertake to update any forward-looking statements, whether written or oral, that may be made from time to time, by it or on its behalf.

The forward-looking information contained in this Prospectus Supplement is presented for the purpose of interpreting the information contained herein and may not be appropriate for other purposes.

Recent Developments

On December 24, 2008, the Pan-Canadian Investors Committee for Third-Party Structured ABCP (the "Committee") announced that an agreement had been reached with all key stakeholders, including the governments of Canada, Quebec, Ontario and Alberta, regarding the restructuring of $32 billion of third-party ABCP. The announcement followed the decision of the Ontario Superior Court to extend the stay period for the Committee's plan to restructure third-party ABCP until January 16, 2009. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the governments and certain participants in the restructuring will provide in the aggregate $4.45 billion of additional margin facilities to support the proposed restructuring plan. That total includes $1 billion of additional margin funding support to be provided by the investors who constitute the investors in Master Asset Vehicle I. As an investor in Master Asset Vehicle I, the Bank's pro rata portion of that amount is approximately $98 million and is in addition to the Bank's prior commitment of approximately $812 million of margin funding in support of the restructuring.

In its announcement, the Committee also stated that a motion for the required final court approval of the plan pursuant to the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) will be brought in early January 2009, seeking approval of the closing process and certain amendments that, among other things, will accommodate the senior facilities and plan enhancements. A closing of the ABCP restructuring is expected in January 2009.

On December 29, 2008, DBRS announced it has assigned provisional ratings of "A" to the Master Asset Vehicle I Class A-1 and Class A-2 Notes and to the Master Asset Vehicle II Class A-1 and Class A-2 Notes which will be issued to investors under the ABCP restructuring plan by Master Asset Vehicle I and Master Asset Vehicle II, the two newly formed vehicles created in connection with the plan.

Investors should refer to the additional disclosure relating to the third-party structured ABCP contained in the Bank's 2008 Annual Report, including the sections entitled "Caution regarding forward-looking statements", "Factors that may affect future results" and "Asset-Backed Commercial Paper".

Definition of Terms

"Annual Fixed Dividend Rate" means, for any Subsequent Fixed Rate Period, the rate of interest (expressed as a percentage rate rounded down to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of one percent (with 0.000005% being rounded up)) equal to the sum of the Government of Canada Yield on the applicable Fixed Rate Calculation Date plus 4.63%.

"Bloomberg Screen GCAN5YR Page" means the display designated as page "GCAN5YR<INDEX>" on the Bloomberg Financial L.P. service (or such other page as may replace the GCAN5YR page on that service) for purposes of displaying Government of Canada Bond yields.

"Fixed Rate Calculation Date" means, for any Subsequent Fixed Rate Period, the 30th day prior to the first day of such Subsequent Fixed Rate Period.

"Government of Canada Yield" on any date means the yield to maturity on such date (assuming semi-annual compounding) of a Canadian dollar denominated non-callable Government of Canada bond with a term to maturity of five years as quoted as of 10:00 a.m. (Montréal time) on such date and which appears on the Bloomberg Screen GCAN5YR Page on such date; provided that, if such rate does not appear on the Bloomberg Screen GCAN5YR Page on such date, the Government of Canada Yield will mean the average of the yields determined by two registered Canadian investment dealers, other than National Bank Financial Inc., selected by the Bank, as being the yield to maturity on such date (assuming semi-annual compounding) which a Canadian dollar denominated non-callable Government of Canada bond would carry if issued in Canadian dollars at 100% of its principal amount on such date with a term to maturity of five years.

“Initial Fixed Rate Period” means the period commencing on the closing date and ending on and including February 15, 2014.

“Subsequent Fixed Rate Period” means for the initial Subsequent Fixed Rate Period, the period commencing February 16, 2014 and ending on and including February 15, 2019, and for each succeeding Subsequent Fixed Rate Period, the period commencing on the day immediately following the end of the immediately preceding Subsequent Fixed Rate Period and ending on and including February 15 in the fifth year thereafter.

Issue Price

The First Preferred Shares Series 24 will have an issue price of $25.00 per share.

Dividends

During the Initial Fixed Rate Period, the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 will be entitled to receive fixed quarterly non-cumulative preferential cash dividends, as and when declared by the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, on the fifteenth day of each of February, May, August and November of each year, at an annual rate equal to $1.65 per share. The initial dividend, if declared, will be payable on May 15, 2009 and will be $0.55151 per share, based on the anticipated closing date of January 14, 2009.

During each Subsequent Fixed Rate Period after the Initial Fixed Rate Period, the holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24 will be entitled to receive fixed non-cumulative preferential cash dividends, as and when declared by the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, payable quarterly on the fifteenth day of each of February, May, August and November of each year, in the amount per share per annum determined by multiplying the Annual Fixed Dividend Rate applicable to such Subsequent Fixed Rate Period by $25.00.

The Annual Fixed Dividend Rate applicable to a Subsequent Fixed Rate Period will be determined by the Bank on the Fixed Rate Calculation Date. Such determination will, in the absence of manifest error, be final and binding upon the Bank and upon all holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24. The Bank will, on the Fixed Rate Calculation Date, give written notice of the Annual Fixed Dividend Rate for the ensuing Subsequent Fixed Rate Period to the registered holders of the then outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 24.

If the Board of Directors does not declare a dividend, or any part thereof, on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 on or before the dividend payment date for a particular quarter, then the entitlement of the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 to receive such dividend, or to any part thereof, for such quarter will be forever extinguished.

Reference is also made to “Restrictions on Dividends and Retirement of Shares” of this Prospectus Supplement and “Bank Act Restrictions and Restrictions on Payment of Dividends” of the Accompanying Prospectus.

Redemption

The First Preferred Shares Series 24 will not be redeemable prior to February 15, 2014. Subject to the provisions of the Bank Act and to the prior consent of the Superintendent and to the provisions described below under the heading “Restrictions on Dividends and Retirement of Shares”, on February 15, 2014 and on February 15 every five years thereafter, the Bank may redeem all or any part of the then outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 24, at the Bank’s option without the consent of the holder, by the payment of an amount in cash for each such share so redeemed of $25.00 together with all declared and unpaid dividends to the date fixed for redemption.

Notice of any redemption will be given by the Bank at least 30 days and not more than 60 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. If less than all the outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 24 are at any time to be redeemed, the shares to be redeemed will be redeemed pro rata, disregarding fractions. Reference is also made to the provisions described in the Accompanying Prospectus under the heading “Bank Act Restrictions and Restrictions on Payment of Dividends”.

The First Preferred Shares Series 24 do not have a fixed maturity and are not redeemable at the option of the holders. Reference is made to “Risk Factors”.

Conversion of First Preferred Shares Series 24 into First Preferred Shares Series 25

Holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24 will have the right, at their option, on February 15, 2014 and on February 15 every five years thereafter (a “Series 24 Conversion Date”), to convert, subject to the restrictions on conversion described below and the payment or delivery to the Bank of evidence of payment of the tax (if any) payable, all or any of their First Preferred Shares Series 24 registered in their name into First Preferred Shares Series 25 on the basis of one Preferred Share Series 25 for each Preferred Share Series 24. The conversion of First Preferred Shares Series 24 may be effected not earlier than the 30th day prior to, but not later than 5:00 p.m. (Montréal time) on the 15th day preceding, a Series 24 Conversion Date.

The Bank will, at least 30 days and not more than 60 days prior to the applicable Series 24 Conversion Date, give notice in writing to the then registered holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 of the above-mentioned conversion right. On the 30th day prior to each Series 24 Conversion Date, the Bank will give notice in writing to the then registered holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 of the Annual Fixed Dividend Rate for the next succeeding Subsequent Fixed Rate Period.

Holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24 will not be entitled to convert their shares into First Preferred Shares Series 25 if the Bank determines that there would remain outstanding on a Series 24 Conversion Date less than 600,000 First Preferred Shares Series 25, after having taken into account all First Preferred Shares Series 24 tendered for conversion into First Preferred Shares Series 25 and all First Preferred Shares Series 25 tendered for conversion into First Preferred Shares Series 24. The Bank will give notice in writing thereof to all registered holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24 at least seven days prior to the applicable Series 24 Conversion Date. Furthermore, if the Bank determines that there would remain outstanding on a Series 24 Conversion Date less than 600,000 First Preferred Shares Series 24, after having taken into account all First Preferred Shares Series 24 tendered for conversion into First Preferred Shares Series 25 and all First Preferred Shares Series 25 tendered for conversion into First Preferred Shares Series 24, then, all of the remaining outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 24 will automatically be converted into First Preferred Shares Series 25 on the basis of one Preferred Share Series 25 for each Preferred Share Series 24 on the applicable Series 24 Conversion Date, without the consent of the holders, and the Bank will give notice in writing thereof to the then registered holders of such remaining First Preferred Shares Series 24 at least seven days prior to the Series 24 Conversion Date.

If the Bank gives notice to the registered holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 of the redemption of all the First Preferred Shares Series 24, the Bank will not be required to give notice as provided hereunder to the registered holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 of an Annual Fixed Dividend Rate or of the conversion right of holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the right of any holder of First Preferred Shares Series 24 to convert such First Preferred Shares Series 24 will cease and terminate in that event.

Purchase for Cancellation

Subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, the prior consent of the Superintendent, and the provisions described below under the heading “Restrictions on Dividends and Retirement of Shares”, the Bank may at any time purchase for cancellation any Preferred Share Series 24 in the open market at the lowest price or prices at which in the opinion of the Board of Directors such shares are obtainable.

- (d) except pursuant to any purchase obligation, sinking fund, retraction privilege or mandatory redemption provisions attaching to any series of First Preferred Shares of the Bank, redeem, purchase or otherwise retire any other shares ranking on a parity with the First Preferred Shares Series 24;

Reference is made to “Bank Act Restrictions and Restrictions on Payment of Dividends” of the Accompanying Prospectus.

Issue of Additional Series of First Preferred Shares

The Bank may issue other series of First Preferred Shares ranking on a parity with the First Preferred Shares Series 24 without the authorization of the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24, if at the date of such issuance all cumulative dividends up to and including the dividend payment date for the last completed period for which such cumulative dividends shall be payable shall have been declared and paid or set apart for payment in respect of each series of cumulative First Preferred Shares then issued and outstanding, if any, and any declared and unpaid non-cumulative dividends shall have been paid or set apart for payment in respect of each series of non-cumulative First Preferred Shares then issued and outstanding.

Amendments to First Preferred Shares Series 24

The Bank will not, without the approval of the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 given as specified below under “Shareholder Approvals”, delete or vary any rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the First Preferred Shares Series 24. In addition to the aforementioned approval, the Bank will not without, but may from time to time with, the prior approval of the Superintendent, make any such deletion or variation which might affect the classification afforded the First Preferred Shares Series 24 from time to time for capital adequacy requirements pursuant to the Bank Act and the regulations and guidelines thereunder.

Shareholder Approvals

The approval of any amendments to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the First Preferred Shares Series 24 may be given by a resolution carried by the affirmative vote of not less than 66²/₃% of the votes cast at a meeting of holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24 at which a majority of the outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 24 is represented or, if no such quorum is present at such meeting, at any adjourned meeting at which shareholders then present or represented by proxy would form the necessary quorum.

Rights on Liquidation

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Bank, the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 will be entitled to receive $25.00 per share together with all dividends declared and unpaid to the date of payment before any amount will be paid or any assets of the Bank distributed to the holders of any shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares Series 24. The holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of the Bank.

Voting Rights

Subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, the holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24 as such will not be entitled to receive notice of, attend, or vote at, any meeting of the shareholders of the Bank unless and until the first time at which the rights of such holders to any undeclared dividends have become extinguished as described above under “Dividends”. In that event, the holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24 will be entitled to receive notice of, and to attend, meetings of shareholders at which directors of the Bank are to be elected and will be entitled to one vote for each Preferred Share Series 24 held. The voting rights of the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 will forthwith cease upon payment by the Bank of the first quarterly dividend on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 to which the holders are entitled subsequent to the time such voting rights first arose. At such time as the rights of such holders to any undeclared dividends on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 have again become extinguished, such voting rights will become effective again and so on from time to time.

In connection with any action to be taken by the Bank which requires the approval of the holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24 voting as a series or as part of the class, each such share will entitle the holder thereof to one vote.

Tax Election

The First Preferred Shares Series 24 will be “taxable preferred shares” as defined in the Tax Act for the purposes of the tax under Part IV.1 of the Tax Act applicable to certain corporate holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24. The terms of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 will require the Bank to make the necessary election under part VI.1 of the Tax Act so that corporate holders will not be subject to the tax under Part IV.1 of the Tax Act on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on the First Preferred Shares Series 24.

Business Days

If any action is required to be taken by the Bank on a day that is not a business day, then such action will be taken on the next succeeding day that is a business day.

Certain Provisions of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 as a Series

“Floating Quarterly Dividend Rate” means, for any Quarterly Floating Rate Period, the rate of interest (expressed as a percentage rate rounded down to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of one percent (with 0.000005% being rounded up)) equal to the sum of the T-Bill Rate on the applicable Floating Rate Calculation Date plus 4.63%, calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in such Quarterly Floating Rate Period divided by 365.

“Floating Rate Calculation Date” means, for any Quarterly Floating Rate Period, the 30th day prior to the first day of such Quarterly Floating Rate Period.

“Quarterly Commencement Date” means the 16th day of each of February, May, August and November in each year.

Issue Price

The First Preferred Shares Series 25 will have an issue price of $25.00 per share.

Dividends

The holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will be entitled to receive floating rate non-cumulative preferential cash dividends as and when declared by the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, payable quarterly on the fifteenth day of each of February, May, August and November of each year, in the amount per share determined by multiplying the applicable Floating Quarterly Dividend Rate by $25.00.

The Floating Quarterly Dividend Rate for each Quarterly Floating Rate Period will be determined by the Bank on the 30th day prior to the first day of each Quarterly Floating Rate Period. Such determination will, in the absence of manifest error, be final and binding upon the Bank and upon all holders of First Preferred Shares Series 25. The Bank will, on the Floating Rate Calculation Date, give written notice of the Floating Quarterly Dividend Rate for the ensuing Quarterly Floating Rate Period to all registered holders of the then outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 25.

If the Board of Directors does not declare a dividend, or any part thereof, on the First Preferred Shares Series 25 on or before the dividend payment date for a particular Quarterly Floating Rate Period, then the entitlement of the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 to receive such dividend, or to any part thereof, for such Quarterly Floating Rate Period will be forever extinguished.

Redemption

Subject to the provisions of the Bank Act and to the prior consent of the Superintendent and to the provisions described below under the heading “Restrictions on Dividends and Retirement of Shares”, on not more than 60 nor less than 30 days’ notice, the Bank may redeem all or any part of the then outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 25, at the Bank’s option without the consent of the holder, by the payment of an amount in cash for each such share so redeemed of (i) $25.00 together with all declared and unpaid dividends to the date fixed for redemption in the case of redemptions on February 15, 2019 and on February 15 every five years thereafter, or (ii) $25.50 together with all declared and unpaid dividends to the date fixed for redemption in the case of redemptions on any other date after February 15, 2014.

Notice of any redemption will be given by the Bank at least 30 days and not more than 60 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. If less than all the outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 25 are at any time to be redeemed, the shares to be redeemed will be redeemed pro rata, disregarding fractions. Reference is also made to the provisions of the Accompanying Prospectus under the heading “Bank Act Restrictions and Restrictions on Payment of Dividends”.

The First Preferred Shares Series 25 do not have a fixed maturity date and are not redeemable at the option of the holders. Reference is made to “Risk Factors”.

Conversion of First Preferred Shares Series 25 into First Preferred Shares Series 24

Holders of First Preferred Shares Series 25 will have the right, at their option, on February 15, 2019 and on February 15 every five years thereafter (a “Series 25 Conversion Date”), to convert, subject to the restrictions on conversion described below and the payment or delivery to the Bank of evidence of payment of the tax (if any) payable, all or any of their First Preferred Shares Series 25 registered in their name into First Preferred Shares Series 24 on the basis of one First Preferred Share Series 24 for each First Preferred Share Series 25. The conversion of First Preferred Shares Series 25 may be effected not earlier than the 30th day prior to, but not later than 5:00 p.m. (Montréal time) on the 15th day preceding, a Series 25 Conversion Date.

The Bank will, at least 30 days and not more than 60 days prior to the applicable Series 25 Conversion Date, give notice in writing to the then holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 of the above-mentioned conversion right. On the 30th day prior to each Series 25 Conversion Date, the Bank will give notice in writing to the then registered holders of First Preferred Shares Series 25 of the Annual Fixed Dividend Rate for the next succeeding Subsequent Fixed Rate Period.

Holders of First Preferred Shares Series 25 will not be entitled to convert their shares into First Preferred Shares Series 24 if the Bank determines that there would remain outstanding on a Series 25 Conversion Date less than 600,000 First Preferred Shares Series 24, after having taken into account all First Preferred Shares Series 25 tendered for conversion into First Preferred Shares Series 24 and all First Preferred Shares Series 24 tendered for conversion into First Preferred Shares Series 25. The Bank will give notice in writing thereof to all registered holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 at least seven days prior to the applicable Series 25 Conversion Date. Furthermore, if the Bank determines that there would remain outstanding on a Series 25 Conversion Date less than 600,000 First Preferred Shares Series 25, after having taken into account all First Preferred Shares Series 25 tendered for conversion into First Preferred Shares Series 24 and all First Preferred Shares Series 24 tendered for conversion into First Preferred Shares Series 25, then, all, but not part, of the remaining outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 25 will automatically be converted into First Preferred Shares Series 24 on the basis of one Preferred Share Series 24 for each Preferred Share Series 25 on the applicable Series 25 Conversion Date, without the consent of the holders, and the Bank will give notice in writing thereof to the then registered holders of such remaining First Preferred Shares Series 25 at least seven days prior to the Series 25 Conversion Date.

If the Bank gives notice to the registered holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 of the redemption on a Series 25 Conversion Date of all the First Preferred Shares Series 25, the Bank will not be required to give notice as provided hereunder to the registered holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 of an Annual Fixed Dividend Rate or of the conversion right of holders of First Preferred Shares Series 25 and the right of any holder of First Preferred Shares Series 25 to convert such First Preferred Shares Series 25 will cease and terminate in that event.

Purchase for Cancellation

Subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, the prior consent of the Superintendent and the provisions described below under the heading “Restrictions on Dividends and Retirement of Shares”, the Bank may at any time purchase for cancellation any of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 in the open market at the lowest price or prices at which in the opinion of the Board of Directors such shares are obtainable.

Restrictions on Dividends and Retirement of Shares

So long as any of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 are outstanding, the Bank will not, without the approval of the holders of outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 25 given as specified below:

- (a) pay any dividends on the Common Shares or any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares Series 25 (other than stock dividends payable in shares of the Bank ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares Series 25);
- (b) redeem, purchase or otherwise retire any Common Shares or any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares Series 25 (except out of the net cash proceeds of a substantially concurrent issue of shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares Series 25);
- (c) redeem, purchase or otherwise retire less than all the First Preferred Shares Series 25 then outstanding; or
- (d) except pursuant to any purchase obligation, sinking fund, retraction privilege or mandatory redemption provisions attaching to any series of First Preferred Shares of the Bank, redeem, purchase or otherwise retire any other shares ranking on a parity with the First Preferred Shares Series 25;

unless, in each such case, all dividends up to and including the dividend payment date for the last completed period for which dividends will be payable will have been declared and paid or set apart for payment in respect of each series of cumulative First Preferred Shares then issued and outstanding and on all other cumulative shares ranking on a parity with the First Preferred Shares and there will have been paid or set apart for payment all declared dividends in respect of each series of non-cumulative First Preferred Shares (including the First Preferred Shares Series 25) then issued and outstanding and on all other non-cumulative shares ranking on a parity with the First Preferred Shares. Reference is made to “Bank Act Restrictions and Restrictions on Payment of Dividends” of the Accompanying Prospectus.

Issue of Additional Series of First Preferred Shares

The Bank may issue other series of First Preferred Shares ranking on a parity with the First Preferred Shares Series 25 without the authorization of the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25, if at the date of such issuance all cumulative dividends up to and including the dividend payment date for the last completed period for which such cumulative dividends shall be payable shall have been declared and paid or set apart for payment in respect of each series of cumulative First Preferred Shares then issued and outstanding, if any, and any declared and unpaid non-cumulative dividends shall have been paid or set apart for payment in respect of each series of non-cumulative First Preferred Shares then issued and outstanding.

Amendments to First Preferred Shares Series 25

The Bank will not, without the approval of the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 given as specified below under “Shareholder Approvals”, delete or vary any rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the First Preferred Shares Series 25. In addition to the aforementioned approval, the Bank will not without, but may from time to time with, the prior approval of the Superintendent, make any such deletion or variation which might affect the classification afforded the First Preferred Shares Series 25 from time to time for capital adequacy requirements pursuant to the Bank Act and the regulations and guidelines thereunder.

Shareholder Approvals

The approval of any amendments to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the First Preferred Shares Series 25 may be given by a resolution carried by the affirmative vote of not less than $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ of the votes cast at a meeting of holders of First Preferred Shares Series 25 at which a majority of the outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 25 is represented or, if no such quorum is present at such meeting, at any adjourned meeting at which shareholders then present or represented by proxy would form the necessary quorum.

Rights on Liquidation

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Bank, the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will be entitled to receive $25.00 per share together with all dividends declared and unpaid to the date of payment before any amount will be paid or any assets of the Bank distributed to the holders of any shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares Series 25. The holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of the Bank.

Voting Rights

Subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, the holders of First Preferred Shares Series 25 as such will not be entitled to receive notice of, attend, or vote at, any meeting of the shareholders of the Bank unless and until the first time at which the rights of such holders to any undeclared dividends have become extinguished as described above under “Dividends”. In that event, the holders of First Preferred Shares Series 25 will be entitled to receive notice of, and to attend, meetings of shareholders at which directors of the Bank are to be elected and will be entitled to one vote for each Preferred Share Series 25 held. The voting rights of the holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will forthwith cease upon payment by the Bank of the first quarterly dividend on the First Preferred Shares Series 25 to which the holders are entitled subsequent to the time such voting rights first arose. At such time as the rights of such holders to any undeclared dividends on the First Preferred Shares Series 25 have again become extinguished, such voting rights will become effective again and so on from time to time.

In connection with any action to be taken by the Bank which requires the approval of the holders of First Preferred Shares Series 25 voting as a series or as part of the class, each such share will entitle the holder thereof to one vote.

Tax Election

The First Preferred Shares Series 25 will be “taxable preferred shares” as defined in the Tax Act for the purposes of the tax under Part IV.1 of the Tax Act applicable to certain corporate holders of the First Preferred Shares Series 25. The terms of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will require the Bank to make the necessary election under part VI.1 of the Tax Act so that corporate holders will not be subject to the tax under Part IV.1 of the Tax Act on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on the First Preferred Shares Series 25.

Business Days

If any action is required to be taken by the Bank on a day that is not a business day, then such action will be taken on the next succeeding day that is a business day.

Bank Act Restrictions and Approvals

The Accompanying Prospectus sets out a summary of the restrictions contained in the Bank Act concerning the declaration and payment of dividends. The Bank does not anticipate that such restrictions will prevent a declaration or payment of dividends on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 or First Preferred Shares Series 25 in the normal course and the Superintendent has not made any direction to the Bank pursuant to the Bank Act regarding its capital or its liquidity. The Accompanying Prospectus also sets out a summary of the restrictions contained in the Bank Act concerning the issue, transfer, acquisition, beneficial ownership and voting of all shares of the Bank.

Earnings Coverage

The Bank’s dividend requirements on its outstanding First Preferred Shares, after giving effect to the issue of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 to be distributed under this Prospectus Supplement, (assuming the Option Shares are issued), and adjusted to a before-tax equivalent using a statutory income tax rate of 33.45% for the 12 months ended October 31, 2007 and for the 12 months ended October 31, 2008 (assuming the issuance of the First Preferred Shares Series 20 and the First Preferred Shares Series 21 on the first day of such period), amounted to $84 million and $84 million for the 12 months ended October 31, 2007 and for the 12 months ended October 31, 2008, respectively. The Bank’s disbursement requirements for innovative capital instruments for the 12 months ended October 31, 2007 and for the 12 months ended October 31, 2008 (assuming the issuance of the NBC CapS II - Series 1 and the NBC CapS II – Series 2 on the first day of such period) amounted to $91 million and $97 million, respectively. The Bank’s interest requirements for subordinated debentures for the 12 months ended October 31, 2007 and for the 12 months ended October 31, 2008 (assuming the issuance of the Series 6 Medium Term Notes on the first day of such period), amounted to $128 million and $112 million, respectively. The Bank’s earnings before income taxes, non-controlling interest, debentures and innovative capital instruments for the 12 months ended October 31, 2007 and for the 12 months ended October 31, 2008 were $800 million and $908 million, respectively ($1,375 million and $1,072 million, respectively when excluding the charge related to available for sale ABCP ($575 million in 2007 and $164 million in 2008)), which are 2.64 times and 3.10 times the Bank’s aggregate dividend, disbursement on innovative capital instruments and interest requirements for these periods, respectively (4.54 times and 3.66 times, respectively when excluding the charge related to ABCP), after giving effect to the issue of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 (assuming the Option Shares are issued).

Ratings

The First Preferred Shares Series 24 are provisionally rated “Pfd-1 (low)” by DBRS. A “Pfd-1” rating is the highest of five categories available from DBRS for first preferred shares. A reference to “high” or “low” reflects the relative strength within the rating category.

The “P-2” rating is the second highest of the five categories used by S&P on its Canadian first preferred share scale. An A rating by Moody's is the third highest of the nine categories used by Moody's. The modifier "1" indicates that the obligation ranks at the higher of the "A" rating category.

Prospective purchasers of First Preferred Shares Series 24 should consult the rating organization with respect to the interpretation and implications of the foregoing provisional ratings. None of the foregoing ratings should be construed as a recommendation to buy, sell or hold the First Preferred Shares Series 24. The foregoing ratings may be revised or withdrawn at any time by the respective rating organization.

Plan of Distribution

Pursuant to an agreement (the "Underwriting Agreement") dated January 7, 2009 between the Bank and the Underwriters, the Bank has agreed to sell and the Underwriters have jointly and not solidarily agreed to purchase on January 14, 2009, or on such other date not later than January 28, 2009 as may be agreed upon, subject to the terms and conditions contained therein, all but not less than all of the 5,000,000 First Preferred Shares Series 24 at a price of $25.00 per share payable in cash to the Bank against delivery of the First Preferred Shares Series 24. The offering price was determined by negotiations between the Bank and the Underwriters. The Underwriting Agreement provides that the Underwriters will be paid an underwriting fee per share equal to $0.25 with respect to First Preferred Shares Series 24 sold to certain institutions and $0.75 with respect to all other First Preferred Shares Series 24. Assuming no First Preferred Shares Series 24 are sold to such institutions, the total underwriting fee would be $3,750,000.

The obligations of the Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreement may be terminated at their discretion on the basis of their assessment of the state of the financial markets and may also be terminated upon the occurrence of certain stated events. The Underwriters are, however, obligated to take up and pay for all of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 if any are purchased under the Underwriting Agreement.

The Bank has granted to the Underwriters an option to purchase the Option Shares at the offering price hereunder, exercisable at any time up to two business days prior to the closing of this offering. This Prospectus Supplement also qualifies the grant of the Underwriters' Option and the distribution of the Option Shares. The Underwriters will be paid a fee per share equal to $0.25 with respect to Option Shares sold to certain institutions and $0.75 per share with respect to all other Option Shares.

The Bank has applied to list the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 on the TSX. Listing will be subject to the Bank fulfilling all of the requirements of the TSX.

Neither the First Preferred Shares Series 24 nor the First Preferred Shares Series 25 have been or will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 of the United States of America, as amended (the "1933 Act") or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold within the United States, territories or possessions or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the 1933 Act) except in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the 1933 Act.

Pursuant to policy statements of the Autorité des marchés financiers (Québec) and the Ontario Securities Commission, the Underwriters may not, throughout the period of distribution under this Prospectus Supplement, bid for or purchase the First Preferred Shares Series 24. The foregoing restriction is subject to certain exceptions, as long as the bid or purchase is not engaged in for the purpose of creating actual or apparent active trading in or raising the price of such securities. These exceptions include a bid or purchase permitted under the Universal Market Integrity Rules for Canadian Marketplaces of the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada relating to market stabilization and passive market making activities and a bid or purchase made for and on behalf of a customer when the order was not solicited during the period of distribution. In connection with this offering and subject to the foregoing and to applicable law, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 at levels other than those which might otherwise prevail on the open market. Such transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

National Bank Financial Inc., one of the Underwriters, is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Bank. As a result, the Bank is a related and connected issuer to National Bank Financial Inc. under applicable securities legislation. The decision to distribute the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the determination of the terms of the distribution were made through negotiation between the Bank and the Underwriters. TD Securities Inc., an Underwriter, in respect of which the Bank is not a related or connected issuer, has participated in the structuring and pricing of the offering and in the due diligence activities performed by the Underwriters for the offering and review of this Prospectus Supplement. National Bank Financial Inc. will not receive any benefit in connection with this offering other than its share of the Underwriters' fee payable by the Bank.

Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations

In the opinion of McCarthy Tétrault LLP and Torys LLP, the following is a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable to a purchaser of First Preferred Shares Series 24 pursuant to this Prospectus Supplement who, for purposes of the Tax Act and at all relevant times, is resident in Canada or is deemed to be resident in Canada, deals at arm's length with the Bank, is not affiliated with the Bank, holds the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and will hold any First Preferred Shares Series 25 as capital property and is not exempt from tax under Part I of the Tax Act.

Generally, the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will be capital property to a purchaser provided the purchaser does not acquire or hold such shares in the course of carrying on a business or as part of an adventure in the nature of a trade. Certain purchasers who might not otherwise be considered to hold First Preferred Shares Series 24 or First Preferred Shares Series 25 as capital property may, in certain circumstances, be entitled to have them and all other "Canadian securities", as defined in the Tax Act, treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act.

This summary is not applicable to a purchaser that is a "financial institution" (as defined in the Tax Act) for the purposes of certain rules applicable to securities held by financial institutions (referred to as the "mark to market rules"), to a purchaser an interest in which would be a "tax shelter investment" or to a purchaser who has elected to determine its Canadian tax results in a currency (other than Canadian currency) that is a "functional currency" (as defined in the Tax Act). Such purchasers should consult their own tax advisors. Furthermore, this summary is not applicable to a purchaser that is a "specified financial institution" (as defined in the Tax Act) that receives or is deemed to receive, alone or together with persons with whom it does not deal at arm's length, in the aggregate dividends in respect of more than 10% of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 or the First Preferred Shares Series 25, as the case may be, outstanding at the time the dividend is (or is deemed to be) received. This summary also assumes that all issued and outstanding First Preferred Shares Series 24 and First Preferred Shares Series 25 are listed on a designated stock exchange in Canada (as defined in the Tax Act) at such times as dividends (including deemed dividends) are paid or received on such shares.

This summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular purchaser and no representation with respect to the income tax consequences to any particular purchaser is made. Accordingly, prospective purchasers are urged to consult their own tax advisors with respect to the consequences of acquiring, holding or disposing of First Preferred Shares 24 or First Preferred Shares Series 25 to their particular circumstances.

This summary is based upon the current provisions of the Tax Act, the regulations thereunder in force as of the date hereof, all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance prior to the date hereof (the "Proposals") and counsel's understanding of the current administrative practices and assessing policies published in writing by the Canada Revenue Agency (the "CRA") prior to the date hereof. This summary does not otherwise take into account any changes in law or in administrative practices or assessing policies, whether by legislative, administrative or judicial decision or action, nor does it take into account or consider any provincial, territorial or foreign income tax considerations, which may differ materially from those discussed herein. No assurance can be given that the Proposals will be enacted as proposed or at all.

Dividends

Dividends (including deemed dividends) received on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 or the First Preferred Shares Series 25 by an individual (other than certain trusts) will be included in the individual's income and generally will be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules normally applicable to taxable dividends received by individuals from taxable Canadian corporations, including the enhanced dividend tax credit rules applicable to any dividends designated by the Bank as “eligible dividends” in accordance with the Tax Act.

Dividends (including deemed dividends) on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 received by a corporation to which this summary applies will be included in computing income and will generally be deductible in computing its taxable income.

The First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will be “taxable preferred shares” as defined in the Tax Act for the purposes of the tax under Part IV.1 of the Tax Act applicable to certain corporate shareholders of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and First Preferred Shares Series 25. The terms of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 require the Bank to make the necessary election under Part VI.1 of the Tax Act so that corporate shareholders will not be subject to tax under Part IV.1 of the Tax Act on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25.

A private corporation, as defined in the Tax Act, or any other Canadian resident corporation controlled, whether by reason of a beneficial interest in one or more trusts or otherwise, by or for the benefit of an individual (other than a trust) or a related group of individuals (other than trusts), will generally be liable to pay a 33⅓% refundable tax under Part IV of the Tax Act on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 to the extent such dividends are deductible in computing its taxable income.

Dispositions

A holder who disposes of or is deemed to dispose of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 or the First Preferred Shares Series 25 (including on redemption of the shares or other acquisition by the Bank but excluding on a conversion) will generally realize a capital gain (or sustain a capital loss) to the extent that the proceeds of disposition, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base of such shares to the holder thereof immediately before the disposition or deemed disposition. The amount of any deemed dividend arising on the redemption or acquisition by the Bank of First Preferred Shares Series 24 or the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will generally not be included in computing the proceeds of disposition of a holder for purposes of computing the capital gain or capital loss arising on the disposition of such shares. See “Redemption” below. If the shareholder is a corporation, any such capital loss may in certain circumstances be reduced by the amount of any dividends, including deemed dividends, which have been received on such shares to the extent and under circumstances prescribed by the Tax Act. Analogous rules apply to a partnership or trust of which a corporation, trust or partnership is a member or beneficiary.

Generally, one-half of any such capital gain will be included in computing the holder’s income as a taxable capital gain and one-half of any such capital loss may be deducted from the holder’s taxable capital gains in accordance with the rules contained in the Tax Act. Any such capital gain realized by an individual may give rise to a liability for alternative minimum tax. Taxable capital gains of a Canadian controlled private corporation (as defined in the Tax Act) may be subject to an additional refundable tax at a rate of 6⅔%.

Redemption

If the Bank redeems for cash or otherwise acquires the First Preferred Shares Series 24 or the First Preferred Shares Series 25, other than by a purchase in the manner in which shares are normally purchased by a member of the public in the open market, the holder will be deemed to have received a dividend equal to the amount, if any, paid by the Bank, including any redemption premium, in excess of the paid-up capital of such shares at such time as computed for purposes of the Tax Act. Reference is made to “Dividends” above. The difference between the amount paid and the amount of the deemed dividend will be treated as proceeds of disposition for the purposes of computing the capital gain or capital loss arising on the disposition of such shares. Reference is made to “Dispositions” above. In the case of a corporate shareholder, it is possible that in certain circumstances all or part of the amount so deemed to be a dividend may be treated as proceeds of disposition and not as a dividend.

Conversion

The conversion of a First Preferred Share Series 24 into a First Preferred Share Series 25 and a First Preferred Shares Series 25 into a First Preferred Shares Series 24 will be deemed not to be a disposition of property and accordingly will not give rise to any capital gain or capital loss. The cost to a holder of a First Preferred Share Series 25 or First Preferred Share Series 24, as the case may be, received on the conversion will be deemed to be equal to the holder's adjusted cost base of the converted First Preferred Share Series 24 or First Preferred Share Series 25, as the case may be, immediately before the conversion.

Alternative Minimum Tax

A capital gain realized, or a dividend received or deemed to be received, by an individual or a trust (other than certain specified trusts) may give rise to a liability for alternative minimum tax.

Use of Proceeds

The net proceeds to the Bank from the sale of the First Preferred Shares Series 24, after deducting the estimated expenses of the issue and the underwriting fee (assuming no First Preferred Shares Series 24 are sold to institutions) will amount to $121,000,000. Such net proceeds will be added to the Bank's funds and will be used for general business purposes.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

Computershare Trust Company of Canada, at its principal offices in the cities of Vancouver, Calgary, Winnipeg, Toronto and Montréal, will be the transfer agent and registrar for the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25.

Risk Factors

An investment in First Preferred Shares Series 24 is subject to certain risks.

The value of First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25, respectively, will be affected by the general credit worthiness of the Bank. We refer you to the risks described in the Accompanying Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference in this Prospectus Supplement (including subsequently filed documents incorporated by reference), including under the section entitled “Management’s Discussion and Analysis” contained in the Bank’s Annual Report for the year ended October 31, 2008. This analysis discusses, among other things, known material trends and events, and risks or uncertainties, including the successful resolution of the ABCP market restructuring, that are reasonably expected to have a material effect on the Bank’s business, financial condition or results of operations.

Real or anticipated changes in credit ratings on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 or the First Preferred Shares Series 25, if any, may affect the market value of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25, respectively. In addition, real or anticipated changes in credit ratings can affect the cost at which the Bank can transact or obtain funding, and thereby affect the Bank's liquidity, business, financial condition or results of operations.

The First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 are non-cumulative and dividends are payable at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Reference is made to "Earnings Coverage Ratios", which is relevant to an assessment of the risk that the Bank will be unable to pay dividends on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 or the First Preferred Shares Series 25.

The First Preferred Shares Series 24 rank, and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will, if issued, rank, equally with other First Preferred Shares of the Bank in the event of an insolvency or winding-up of the Bank. If the Bank becomes insolvent or is wound-up, the Bank's assets must be used to pay deposit liabilities and other debt, including subordinated debt, before payments may be made on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 or First Preferred Shares Series 25.

Prevailing yields on similar securities will affect the market value of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25. Assuming all other factors remain unchanged, the market value of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will decline as prevailing yields for similar securities rise, and will increase as prevailing yields for similar securities decline. Spreads over the Government of Canada Yield, T-Bill Rate and comparable benchmark rates of interest for similar securities will also affect the market value of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 in an analogous manner.

The redemption or purchase by the Bank of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 is subject to the consent of the Superintendent and other restrictions contained in the Bank Act. Reference is made to "Bank Act Restrictions and Restrictions on Payment of Dividends" of the Accompanying Prospectus.

Neither the First Preferred Shares Series 24 nor the First Preferred Shares Series 25 have a fixed maturity date and are not redeemable at the option of the holders of First Preferred Shares Series 24 or First Preferred Shares Series 25, as applicable. The ability of a holder to liquidate its holdings of First Preferred Shares Series 24 or First Preferred Shares Series 25, as applicable, may be limited.

The dividend rate in respect of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will reset every five years and quarterly, respectively. In each case, the new dividend rate is unlikely to be the same as, and may be lower than, the dividend rate for the applicable preceding dividend period.

An investment in the First Preferred Shares Series 24, or in the First Preferred Shares Series 25, as the case may be, may become an investment in First Preferred Shares Series 25, or in First Preferred Shares Series 24, respectively, without the consent of the holder in the event of an automatic conversion in the circumstances described under "Conversion of First Preferred Shares Series 24 into First Preferred Shares Series 25" and "Conversion of First Preferred Shares Series 25 into First Preferred Shares Series 24" above. Upon the automatic conversion of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 into First Preferred Shares Series 25, the dividend rate on the First Preferred Shares Series 25 will be a floating rate that is adjusted quarterly by reference to the T-Bill Rate which may vary from time to time while, upon the automatic conversion of the First Preferred Shares Series 25 into First Preferred Shares Series 24, the dividend rate on the First Preferred Shares Series 24 will be, for each five-year period, a fixed rate that is determined by reference to the Government of Canada Yield on the 30th day prior to the first day of each such five-year period.

Stock market volatility may affect the market price of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 for reasons unrelated to the Bank's performance. Also, the financial markets are generally characterized by extensive interconnections among financial institutions. As such, defaults by other financial institutions in Canada, the United States or other countries could adversely affect the Bank and the market price of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 or the First Preferred Shares Series 25. Additionally, the respective value of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 and the First Preferred Shares Series 25 is subject to market value fluctuations based upon factors which influence the Bank's operations, such as legislation or regulatory developments, competition, technological change and global capital market activity.

There can be no assurance that an active trading market will develop for the First Preferred Shares Series 24 after the offering or for the First Preferred Shares Series 25 following the issuance of any of those shares, or if developed, that such a market will be sustained at the offering price of the First Preferred Shares Series 24 or the issue price of the First Preferred Shares Series 25.
