

As Executive Vice-President – Risk Management, Patricia Curadeau-Grou oversees special projects and is responsible for all merger and acquisition mandates. Ms. Curadeau-Grou has been a member of National Bank's Office of the President since 2007.

Patricia Curadeau-Grou
Executive Vice-President –
Risk Management
Member of the Office of the President

During her tenure, Ms. Curadeau-Grou has created a strong risk management-based culture. With the support of her team, she has implemented sophisticated management systems, securing National Bank a solid position among the major Canadian banks in terms of risk management. Her achievements are recognized in financial markets.

Ms. Curadeau-Grou began her career at National Bank in 1991 as Vice-President – Credit, United States and International. She was later appointed Vice-President – Special Loans, Real Estate and Syndication. In 1998, she was appointed Senior Vice-President – Risk Management. From May 2007 to August 2011, she served as Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice-President – Finance, Risk and Treasury. She has extensive banking experience, acquired during a career spanning more than 25 years.

Patricia Curadeau-Grou has a long track record in credit and risk management. Prior to joining the Bank, she held a number of key positions at major financial institutions, primarily in business development, credit and corporate planning.

In addition to her duties, Ms. Curadeau-Grou is actively involved within the community. She sits on the boards of the Diabetic Children's Foundation and Plan Canada and is co-chair of the Fundraising Committee of the Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières Foundation's 2009-2014 major fundraising campaign.

Ms. Curadeau-Grou has a BA in Finance from McGill University. She has also participated in several seminars at Harvard University. In January 2007, she received her diploma from the Institute of Corporate Directors after having successfully completed the Directors Education Program.

Since 2007, Ms. Curadeau-Grou has been a member of the Women's Executive Network Hall of Fame for Canada's most powerful women. She received this honour after being named one of Canada's Most Powerful Women: Top 100 three times.